PURPOSE

The Associated Women for Harding is a statewide organization with the local chapter being designated as the Metropolitan Little Rock group. Our purpose is to promote and support Christian education in general and Harding College in particular. Our efforts give the additional benefit of making and strengthening friendship with others interested in Christian education.

Make new friends,
but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold,
New-made friendships,
like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.

Harding Group Holds Meeting

On Friday, April 1st, at 12:00 noon, Associated Women For Harding met in the community room of the Park Hill Branch of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association in North Little Rock.

After a luncheon catered by Canteen Hosts, the program was presented by Mrs. Ed Moore, whose shop is located at 423 Woodlane, across from the Capitol.

Mrs. Moore, who specializes in wall decor, explained to the group the proper way to decorate walls, how to hang pictures, and the proper framing for your pictures. A question-and-answer hour on decoration problems followed Mrs. Moore's talk.

The nominating committee, selected to suggest a slate of new officers, made their report at this meeting. The following have been elected to serve from May, 1966, to April, 1967: Mrs. Bill Hefley, President; Mrs. Bill Dismuke, First Vice President; Mrs. Leonard Smith, Second Vice President; Mrs. J. R. Duff, Third Vice President; Mrs. Frank Wilson, Fourth Vice President; Mrs. W. V. Logue, Secretary; Mrs. Vail Paschal, Jr., Treasurer; Mrs. Roy Vanderpool, Reporter; and Miss Dorothy Ballenger, Historian.

The next meeting of Associated Women For Harding, honoring the outgoing and incoming officers, will be held May 2nd at 7:30 in the community room of the Pulaski Heights Bank, Grant at Kavanaugh Street. Mrs. Theo Kail will speak to the group on "The Christian Woman and the Home." Hostesses will be: Mrs. Leonard Smith; Mrs. L. M. Peebles; Mrs. Katherine Riggs; Mrs. Robert Rossi; Mrs. Ernest Potter.

Each member is being encouraged to save items of clothing that no longer fit their children and are still in good repair. These should be brought along with any toys your children have outgrown to the May meeting. The following day, May 3rd, from 10:30 until 3:00, these items will be placed on sale at the Pulaski Heights Bank Community Room. The sale will be open to the public.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN FOR HARDING
NEWSLETTER
May 1966

A monthly publication designed to keep members and prospective members of Associated Women for Harding informed of the groups, projects and plans.

A new challenge has been made
To women with hope it will not fade.
An opportunity to serve in a way
That protects tomorrow and helps today.

It unites us in our common bond
And gives more fellowship, of which we are fond.
It gives us much activity
With Christian Education the responsibility.

Associated Women for Harding is its name
(Already the cookbook has won it fame).
And now here we are about a year old
With new adventures beginning to unfold.

AWH offers to you and to me
Opportunities that before we did not see.
Now--let's help it grow to be the very best
So Christian Education will be more blest.

BY: Alice Flynn Bell
April 24, 1966

This poem, composed by the past president of Metropolitan Little Rock chapter, was read during the general meeting of AWH on the Harding Campus April 26. Read it again--it says so well what we're really trying to do.

The meeting April 26 was wonderful with almost 100 members from twelve chapters attending despite a heavy downpour of rain.

Many plans were made, many discussions were held, many problems were solved, many new ideas were projected, but most of all, friends enjoyed the fellowship of the day.

The meeting will be held in 1967 on the last Tuesday of April so start making plans now to be in Searcy for that day.

FUTURE PLANS

Our next meeting will be in September with the details to be announced in the next newsletter. Sue Dismuke, our new program chairman, is making arrangements for the year's programs. She and Yvonne Davis expect to have the '66-'67 yearbook out by September 1 so that you can make your plans for attending the meetings well in advance!

Margaret Smith and Minnie Duff are organizing the membership and hospitality committees respectively. The names will be included in the yearbook.

HARDING STUDENTS EXPRESS APPRECIATION

Dwayne Van Rheeman, president of the Harding Student Body, very thoughtfully sent the following letter last week.

The students at Harding College would like to take the opportunity to thank you and the Associated Women for Harding for helping to make our new American Heritage Center possible. The building and facilities init have been proud additions to our campus.

Since we do not all personally know you, we just wanted to let you know that we appreciate what you have done for us. Whenever you can, be sure to stop and visit us.

Betty says:

WANT TO WORK? CALL ME!

To go into more detail we have much work remaining on our items to be sold at the livestock show. Johnice Hearn has been and will be setting up workshops; also, many individuals are working in their homes, cutting, gluing, braiding, etc. For materials and instructions, call Johnice, Betty Wilson, or Jane Hefley.

Dear Associates,

LEND AN EAR FOR AN EXCITING NEW PROJECT.

Associated Women for Harding has adopted a Gold Bond Group Project Plan to obtain equipment for the Home Economics Department of the College.

The plan, based on a point system, will enable us to pool our efforts to obtain needed items for the school, and since the home economics line is of interest to all women, this department has been chosen.

There are several ways you can help. Turn in your Gold Bond Stamps--books preferably, but single stamps are fine. Each book is worth 700 points.

Also, when you "spend" a book of Gold Bond Stamps, simply ask for a "donation certificate". You will receive one for each filled book you redeem for yourself. These certificates are worth 10 points each.

We can also earn Free points for displays, publicity releases and other ways we promote the project. If you have any ideas, they are welcome.

Also, if you have any questions, let us know. The chairman for the project will be Mrs. Jerry Atkinson.

The most pressing need from the Home Economics Department is a refrigerator-freezer and this is available for 51,800 points. Now let's figure a little: that's 1 book from 74 members!! And do you know that Mae Anne Tucker has already promised the first book. So get your stamp books together; ask your friends, relatives and neighbors for any stamps they don't plan to use--or for the "donation certificate" when they redeem their filled books for themselves.

We need your cooperation. Please send your donation of "donation certificates" to your president. She will in turn send them to Roberta Atkinson.

Mrs. Jerry Atkinson
1205 58th Terrace
Ft. Smith, Arkansas 72901

P.S. The Gold Bond plan has many, many items available which would be of great value for the college. For instance, an 84-cup coffee maker can be had for 11,250 points--or only 16 books. Perhaps a chapter would like to provide this.

SEARCY—Classes began at Harding College here Friday with 1,710 students registered—an increase of 16 per cent over last year's record total of 1,426 on opening day.

Two years ago 1,230 registered. The administration expects this year's total to reach 1,750 before the deadline for registration.

Dormitory space was at a premium and all rooms were shifted to accommodate three students. The first wing of the new men's dormitory was opened to house 100 and the second wing is under construction. The overflow was placed in the American Heritage Building guest rooms, Benson House, former home of Harding's president, and private residences.

Dr. C. L. Ganus Jr., president, said that construction of a new dormitory for women would begin immediately and plans are being made for another men's dorm as well as an additional women's hall to be built within two years.

Twenty new teachers were added to the faculty and more than 30 new classes were added to the curriculum for the new school year.

AN OPEN LETTER TO BETTY WILSON, Livestock Show Chairman 1966:

The enclosed report of your assignment as chairman of the AWH booth at the Livestock Exposition is only one of the proofs of the quality of job you have done for our organization.

While we know that any organization functions only because every member makes it so, we also realize that there must be some leadership and extra effort put forth at various times. In this capacity you have exceeded what any of us could have desired in thinking, planning and executing the AWH booth.

Probably none of us could imagine the time you have given--even to taking a week off during the fair to oversee the sale. Probably none of us realizes the extent of work you have done.

But all of us are so grateful for having a member like you--one who so well exemplifies the service our organization is trying to render.

To you, Betty, all of us extend a warm and sincere "Thank You" and we want you to know that we appreciate you in every way.

Your 700 fellow members from the 13 chapters

'ASSOCIATES' WORK DATES TO 1930's; CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PROMOTER REMEMBERS

Soon after the Association's report appeared in the Harding Bulletin, a letter was received from Mrs. J. P. Mattox of Oklahoma City. The interesting note is printed for your enjoyment.

Mrs. Mattox has a son who is president of a Christian College (F.W. Mattox, Lubbock Christian) and a son-in-law who is president of another (M. Norvel Young, Pepperdine College). The Oklahoma Christian College Stepping Stones recently dedicated a new cookbook to her. She is a remarkable woman.

The letter stated:

"You are doing many things and doing them well!

"As I noted your accomplishments and visualized the beautiful buildings with the newest comforts and the great student body who takes advantage of all this, I thought of the very first gift to Harding by women in Oklahoma City! It was Lectureship and Homecoming week and because our Fount William was in Harding in Morrilton we made the long trip over narrow rough roads in about 14 hours. The small sparsely furnished girls dormitory with its large reception room was a happy place on "date nights" with boys and girls--many of them sitting on the floor! They didn't seem to mind but I did.

"When I came home as vividly as I could I described this to the large Ladies Bible Class I taught. As a result we bought a long sturdy loos-cushion divan and made two dozen big fat round pillows--inner stuffed with excelsior with cotton overlay and heavy tapestry covers!

"Mrs. R. C. Moss, Dr. Sallie Smith and I, with children in Morrilton, had the responsibility with many helping hands and necessary donations of materials.

"Our reward came when Bro. (J. N.) Armstrong wrote a thank-you note. So far as I know this is the first of "Women's work for Christian Education" which today is a great help in each Christian College.

"I was present at organizational meetings at Oklahoma Christian, Lubbock Christian and Pepperdine Colleges.

"The talented women who have served in PTA and Woman's clubs are glad to find their skills and time needed in helping Christian education in a special way. But the greatest value is in fellowship of Christian women at the small and large meetings. There is a special joy in coming together! A closeness in working together with a common and worthwhile goal is most satisfying.

"God bless you and yours

(signed) Irene Y. Mattox"

It was with regret that the resignation was accepted, but with hope that at a later date Helen will once again hold office for the group. It is a pleasure to announce at this time that Mrs. Pat Bell has consented to serve as secretary for the remainder of the year.

Arkansas Power and Light Community Room, February 6, at 6:30 p.m. will be the time and place of the next AWH meeting. Mrs. Marie Schulte will cater dinner for the members, their husbands and guests at a cost of $1.50 for one or $2.75 for two.

METROPOLITAN LITTLE ROCK
ASSOCIATED WOMEN FOR HARDING
JANUARY, 1967

Happy New Year! I hope all of you are looking forward to our next meeting as much as I am. Just to make it easy, here are the details:

11:45 a.m., Tuesday, January 10 - Luncheon at the Woman's City Club.

Program - Book review by Mrs. Gus Allison

Cost - $1.50 per plate. Reservations must be given to Margaret Smith, MO 6-5046, by 5 p.m., Friday, January 6th. We are responsible for every plate ordered so if you should be unable to attend at the last minute, please send your money to our treasurer, Rita Paschal, Centerwood, 1 . (The club makes no profit from the luncheon.)

Hostesses are Mrs. Winston Chandler, chairman; Mrs. Glen Buchanan, co-chairman; Mrs. Roy Vanderpool, Mrs. Tom Carter, Mrs. V.L. Whitting, and Miss Dorothy Ballenger.

The holiday season started early for all members attending the lovely tea in Mrs. Herbert Reinhardt's home Sunday afternoon, December 4. Christmas decorations throughout added to the festivity. The hostesses had prepared food that was both good to look at and delicious to eat!

Gift items were on display. Although the total is not yet in, December sales will probably total about $35.00.

Project Report

Betty Wilson asks that we save all old nylon stockings, clean, of course. These will be used to stuff animals for next year's fair.

Looking Ahead

Let's each and everyone make a New Year's Resolution to try to attend every meeting if we possibly can! - - - And do begin on January 10.

See you there.

GOLD BOND STAMP PROJECT REPORT
from Roberta Atkinson

We're over half way to achieving a new refrigerator-freezer for the College. At this time 30,390 points have been turned in toward our goal of 58,000 points. Contributions to the project have come from Ft. Smith, Hot Springs, Little Rock and Searcy chapters. Searcy deserves credit for the most points donated. I'm sure there are many others who have not reported, waiting until they have full books, etc.

Let's make a concentrated effort to fill those books and have the project completed before our annual meeting in April. Send all your books, full or not, to me by April 1. Remember that each newspaper mention is worth 100 points.

Roberta Atkinson

AN AMENDMENT: North Louisiana chapter in Monroe has sent 7,000 more points so that brings the total to 37,000. Now let's figure a bit: We lack 21,000 points. That's 30 books of stamps. We have 650 members. Surely 30 of us can find a book. Or 60, half a book?

The school year is progressing rapidly and it would be well if we could get this project completed soon. Let's make an effort to collect the stamps before the next report to the Gold Bond company on April 1.

Remember there are several ways to get points. A mention in the paper and certificates worth 10 points each when you redeem a book for yourself. Ask for them when you redeem your books.

ANOTHER IDEA FOR CONSIDERATION

The Searcy chapter has voted to start collecting General Mills coupons---the ones in Gold Medal Flour, All Big G cereals, any Betty Crocker products, etc. So many of us toss these aside, but collectively their benefits can help Harding College.

Ruth Atteberry has volunteered as chairman of the coupon project for Searcy and will receive any coupons you have. Bring them to the meeting Feb. 14.

If other chapters care to join the effort it would be fine. Perhaps you would like a project of your own, or perhaps (some chapters being limited in number of members) you would like to add your coupons to Searcy's collection. Either is great. But remember to save any General Mills product coupons.

The Harding College Belles and Beaux Student Group

Harding Singers to Perform March 10

The Harding College Belles and Beaux, a student group of singers who are also entertainers, and Dot Beck a professional entertainer known throughout the state, will appear in Little Rock Friday, March 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium on the fourth floor of the National Investors Life Building, Second and Broadway.

Dot Beck who frequently entertains for civic organizations throughout the state will present a medley of songs. She will be accompanied in many of her numbers by a trio from Searcy.

The Belles and Beaux group, all full-time students at the college, spend many hours in rehearsals to achieve the brand of showmanship necessary for perfection. Each year they travel to all parts of the United States for single performances, and accordingly the demand for personal appearances increases.

Under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Davis Jr., associate professor of music at the college, the show employs a wide variety of musical instruments, stage settings and types of songs. As scenes and moods change, so do the costumes. Performers never appear on stage twice in the same attire. The wardrobe changes from formal dress of peau de soie gowns to novelty western dress of buckskin and calico for the Belles. The beaux will sing as gay caballeros in fringe-trimmed hats and then come back in formal tuxedos for the succeeding section of song.

Duets, instrumental numbers and novelty acts throughout the fast-moving program add variety and blend to an evening of fine entertainment for audiences of all ages.

Tickets for the performance are available from any AWH member or by calling Mrs. Bill Hefley at CA 5-2780 or Mrs.

Frank Wilson at LO 5-3097 or Mrs. Leonard Smith at MO 6-5046. The price of admission is $1.00 for adults and $.50 for children under 12. Proceeds from the program will go to benefit Harding College.

Musical Program -- A Big Success!

You said you could do it and you did! The auditorium was filled, everyone had a marvelous time, and we made a profit of at least $265.00. People are still talking about how good the Belles and Beaux, Dr. Kenneth Davis, and Dot Beck are--and what excellent representatives of Harding College they are.

So--congratulations on a job well done to all of you and especially to Margaret Smith, ticket sales chairman; Jo Ann Goad, reporter; and Marie Thompson, television publicity chairman.

WITH THE YEAR WELL SPENT

WE RETURN TO GIVE OUR REPORTS.
COMPARE SUCCESSES.

Little Things

Homer Putnam Reeves

"For who hath despised the day of small things?" Life is composed not of a little bundle of big things but of a big bundle of little things.

Drops of water compose the oceans. Seconds compose the moments: moments the hours. Mills compose the pennies: pennies the nickels—dimes—dollars. All matter is composed of atoms and molecules. Man's growth, physical, mental and spiritual, is a gradual process—here a little: there a little. (Isa. 28:10)

For breadth of comprehension, perhaps no theme is greater. No subject is more involved with life in the commonplace. No subject is fraught with so many far-reaching consequences, for this is the very fabric of life. Bruce Barton said, "When I consider what chance word, a tap on the shoulder, or a penny dropped on the newsstand—I am tempted to think . . . there are no little things." Paradoxically, it may be that the little things are the greatest things after all.

Life has more to do with so-called little things than great things. True greatness derives not from great sacrifices and duties but of small things that tell upon our destiny more than greater ones.

"He who waits to do a great deal of good at once will never do anything." It is very rarely that an occasion is offered for doing a great deal at once. True greatness consists in being great in little things. Herein man may most freely exercise his stewardship.

"Springs are little things, but they are sources of large streams; a helm is a small thing, but we know its use and power; nails and pegs are little things, but they hold the parts of a large building together; a word, a look, a smile, a frown, are all little things, but powerful for good or evil." One should be cautious therefore, that he despise not the day of small things, we may discover that the small and simple duties hold the key to the biggest problems of life. Man should understand that his very character, his usefulness, his happiness and indeed his ultimate salvation will be greatly affected by, if not accomplished by, little things.

Consider the public ministry of Jesus Christ. It was made up mostly of little words, little deeds, little prayers, little sympathies, adding themselves together in unwearied succession.

The total beauty of Christ's life is but the added beauty of little acts of beauty—discoursing with the woman at the well and with the Syrophenician; dropping a tear at the grave of Lazarus; teaching the small group of disciples how to pray; preaching to two disciples on the Emmaus road; kindling a fire and broiling fish for the disciples.

These items permit us to see clearly the true equality and tone of God's interest, so specific, so narrowed, so engrossed with the minute—the little things of life.

King Solomon said, "There are four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise; the ants are a people not strong, yet they provide their food in the summer; the conies are but a feeble folk, yet they make their houses in the rocks; the locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; the lizard taketh hold with her hands, yet she is in kings' palaces." (Prov. 30: 24-28.)

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise." (Prov. 6:6.)

The message of the ant is one of preparation. At a proper time they make provision for the needs of winter. They are a people not strong, yet they provide their good in the summer. When the frosts of winter come their larders are filled.

Man should make preparation, likewise. Jesus said, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures on the earth . . . but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through and steal."

Man should understand that this life is a probation period. Heaven is truly a prepared place for prepared people.

The conies are likewise a feeble folk, yet they build in the rocks. The lesson of security is presented. The only security which this world knows is found in the Rock of Ages. "Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee." There, and there alone is absolute safety—safety which poor mortals so desperately need.

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

An old man, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim—
That sullen stream held no fears for him;
But he turned, when he reached the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength in building here.
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again will pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at eventide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head,
"Good friend, in the path I have come,"
he said,
There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way,
This chasm that has been as naught to me
To a fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I'm building the bridge for him."

— William Dromogoole

The locusts have no king. They form a cooperative band. Even with no leader they work together. Moving in vast swarms, they succeed in destroying much vegetation. All Christ-minded people will be united. Those with the mind of Christ form a cooperative—the living church.

The lesson of the lizard is one of industry. She takes hold with her hands and is found in kings' palaces. Such perseverance is worthy of our emulation.

Perhaps the best part of a righteous life is the summation of nameless unremembered deeds of kindness and love. It may be at the last day, all that is worth recording of an active life, will be those little deeds that were done—those little words spoken—under the loving eyes of Providence.
